

The following tables summarize the sentences that were read by each informant. The first column gives the informant's index and contains the fields:

gender	index	native language	script number
--------	-------	-----------------	---------------

For example, f01arabic1 denotes female informant 01 whose native language is Arabic and who read script 1.

The second column gives the range of prompts the informant attempted to read. Column three lists utterances that were interrupted, and the fourth column lists the sentences that were skipped by the informant.
